

Try new things this season

Autumn's shorter days and cooler air means an adjustment of routine which I tried on Tuesday in order to complete this article on time. I had breakfast on the run and skipped my mid-morning snack altogether. For some reason, all I could think about was lunch buffets.

If you have not yet dined at Mama Maria's Pizzeria located at 770 Main Street East, why not try their lunch buffet where you may enjoy several of their most popular menu items in one visit. Mama Maria's is open six days a week and closed on Monday. The lunch buffet is available from 11:00 am until 3:00 pm on Tuesday through Friday, and then on Sunday.

If you have not tried China Wok, located at 120 Main Street West, they have a buffet for lunch and dinner plus a 99 item menu available for dine in or carry out. They are open seven days a week from 10:30 am until 9:30 pm.

How about trying your luck in the Third Annual Sand Mountain Dessert Bake Off on November 21st, or the 50th Annual Rainsville Christmas Parade float contest on December 5th. You can find entry forms and detailed information for each event on the 'Calendar of events' page at rainsvillealabama.com.

We have a new member this week at the Rainsville Chamber of Commerce that is ready to help businesses try new things. Rejas Design (pronounced Ree-jus) is now serving business owners in the Rainsville area. The website design and marketing company is owned by Rainsville native and 1993 Plainview graduate Roger Scott. He opened Rejas Design while working as the director of operations for waff.com, the website for Huntsville television station WAFF 48. The station won the Edward R. Murrow Award for Best Website in the Country in 2007.

Roger chose to leave WAFF last year to expand Rejas' operations. The company offers full-featured, attractive, affordable websites with broad e-commerce capabilities and marketing services. Roger said Rejas Design has the ability to help business owners better serve their customers.

Rejas Design is currently offering a discount package to chamber members. To learn more about that offer, or about lunch buffets or the baking contest or parade, you may contact me at 256-638-7800, or timeberhart@farmerstel.com.
